CID Scholarship Award – RULES & REGULATIONS

Revised August 2026

- Objective

  The CID Scholarship Award supports the professional growth of CID members by helping fund qualifying education, advanced training, and industry-recognized credentials that deepen commercial real estate knowledge and expertise. Through this investment, CID seeks to strengthen professional practice, cultivate industry leadership, and advance the commercial real estate community.

- Eligibility

  - Applicants must be a REALTOR® member of NOMAR CID in good standing.
  - Previous winners, CID Board members and Scholarship Committee members are ineligible. Affiliate members are ineligible.
  - Previous applicants that did not receive scholarships may re-apply.

- The Scholarship Awards

  - The awarding of the scholarships shall be on an annual basis. The CID Scholarship committee shall grant the sum of $1,500 per recipient this year, including one scholarship designated for industrial real estate education and professional development.
  - 2026 scholarship awards may be used any time between December 2026 and December 31, 2028. CID membership must be maintained in good standing during this entire time.
  - 2026 recipients will be announced at the CID Holiday Social to be held on December 10, 2026.

- Scholarship Awards Application

  - Applicants must submit a written statement describing their intended use of the scholarship funds, the professional objective the funding will support, why they should be selected, and the anticipated timeframe and organization through which the funds will be used.
  - Selection Criteria: Factors considered in evaluation of scholarship applications include length of CID membership, current and past participation in CID committees and functions, and clarity/thoroughness of plans for use of scholarship funds as it relates to career development.
